MANY have tried to save money by depositing their earnings in a savings bank, but soon failed, because they had nothing to urge them to continue. The same parties, if members of the Second Modern Building and Loan Association would undoubtedly succeed because the regular meetings would be an incentive to continue the payments, Office 138 Fifth avenue.

COME in the morning for bargains and avoid the afternoon rush; you will have better attention and an opportunity to get many good bargains that, owing to the erowded condition of our counters later in the day, make it impossible to show. HUGUS & HACKE.

While other houses have been comparatively idle we have been doing a rushing business, and we have had the pleasure of giving to over 1,000 purchasers the goods they bought, free. Do we care for any losses we may have sustained by reason of the business jollification we have provided for our customers? Net a bit. No firm in this great country can better afford to spend a few toousand dollars to further enhance their good name than ourselves; no firm in the world does it more cheerfully and willingly than we do. Greatest Slaughter in Suits Known

The utter absence of "trash," "odds and ends," etc., from this sale will cause no end of surprise. People generally expect a bazaar of remnants, but as they find, on looking our goods over, nothing but new goods

displayed, they will only RECOVER FROM THEIR EXPRESSIONS OF ADMIRATION

TO BE DUMFOUNDED BY THE LOW PRICES. While other dealers urge as reasons for selling their goods so ruinously (?) "backward season," "overstocked," etc., we have no such flimsy excuses to offer for giving right now to our patrons the bargains of a lifetime. We have had right through the season a glorious business and of course replenished our stock from manufacturers who were willing to accept almost any price for what they had on hand. No statement, however strong, will give these goods more than is due them. They are grand and every sale we make will win steadfast friends for our house. because it will put money into every patron's pocket.
